Christopher Belmont Johnson has been heavily involved in the occult for over 11 years. He is a Initiate of the Builders of The Adytum: a western mystery school, member of the Horus Maat Thelemic Lodge, the Order of The Black Dragon, the Temple of The Vampire and the Church of Satan,. He has also appeared on the Moncrieff program of NewsTalk 106-108 FM Ireland. He is also the former host of the pagan program Hermetic Philosophy and Magick. He has been a consultant for television programs involving occult topics. He is a former student of Monte Plaisance who founded the Church of Thessaly and the Hellenic Society of Archaeos Temenoi Hellenica. He was attuned to the forces of Italian Witchcraft (Stregaheria) by Raven and Stephanie Grimassi through their Italian Witchcraft course and was part of their Walnut Witches group. He is a Hereditary Witch/Warlock, his father was at one time a high priest of his own occult group. He is the former high priest of the Wiccan Earth Coven of Power. He is the founder of the Werewolf Pagan Tradition. A non Wiccan, Pagan tradition which focuses on a realist approach to paganism and Witchcraft without christian moral and ethical influence. As well as the high priest of The Werewolf Cathedral, a pagan church/coven. He has earned degrees in both computer information systems and master art, and has also studied parapsychology at the college level

“I noticed there was a potential for this philosophy to be used in a religious context in a way it had never been done before. Whether or not a person believed in spirituality seemed to have no affect on the simple fact they still lived the ideas of social Darwinism. It became clear to me the more in tune you are with nature as it really is, the more powerful you are. And if you consider the Hermetic Axiom: As above so below, then it makes sense that to be in tune with nature would make one in tune with the spiritual side of man, if in fact it existed. And nature being predatory, this seemed to be the perfect philosophy that could be used in the creation of a predatory religion.”

“I knew all systems had failed man in one way or another.

They had all tried to dictate to man that he would either believe in the spiritual or not. I knew once this problem was solved man would be free to engage in his instinctual inclinations without reservation.”

After many years of studying everything he could get his hands on from philosophy to occultism he formulated his own religion. “The religion of the Werewolf is one that allows it's disciples to engage in their instinctual carnal inclinations without the intellect getting in the way. Then if they choose to believe in spirituality they can then allow their animal instincts to guide that spirituality. Unlike other Left Hand path religions the Werewolf is never required to believe or disbelieve in spirituality.”

THE OATH OF THE WEREWOLF

Learn it, believe it, live it!

I am a beast and I worship instinct and intelligence.
I am predator not prey and shall conduct myself as such.
I shall believe nothing that is not within my reasoning.
I exalt the dark forces in nature and man, as they are vital to existence.
I shall always strive to preserve myself and my pack.
I shall have no other gods before mine own self.
I will not befriend that which is inferior.
I am a werewolf and shall be ruled by none.
I shall always seek to unify my intellect with my instinct.
I shall always respect the Occult and it's hidden forces and power.
I will not betray my kind no matter what benefit I may gain.
I shall know, I shall will, I shall dare, and I shall remain silent.
I shall have no pity for those, which I seduce, with my magick.

THE WEREWOLF VOW

I am he who shall bow before none.
I am he who will not submit.
I am he that defies all enslavement.
I am he who will always rebel against that which is not of myself.
I am he that would rather rule in hell than serve in heaven.
I am he that attains all power of mine own self.
I am he that shall defy any authority which seeks to exalt itself above mine own.
I am he who shall never be defeated.
I am he who by his own will can never cease to exist.
I am he that stands against all odds and lives to laugh last.
I am he that hath earned the right to be the constant terror to any and all that should ever be foolish enough to defy my will!
I am the Werewolf of hell and I hath no master!
- inspired by the bringer of light, Lucifer.

THE WEREWOLF PRAYER

Our Father Marchosias, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom is come, Thy will is done; on earth!
We take our rightful place, and to no one shall we submit.
Lead us unto glory, and deliver us from that which leads to defeat, for Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory!

WEREWOLF MENTALITY

The mentality of the Werewolf mentality is that of one who will never submit. One who will always maintain superiority in all situations. And if anyone should ever try to stop the Werewolf of exerting his superiority, then the Werewolf will be sure to show the unfortunate soul the error of it's ways. The Werewolf is that of one who has the rebellious soul. The one who when told to do something which is against it's will simply responds with a defiant "NO!" The true Werewolf would never do anything which is not in accordance with it's own will. If another thinks the Werewolf should do something other then the Werewolf's will, the Werewolf will not bend it's will to pacify the wants of that which is not itself.

THE MASTER SLAVE DICHOTOMY

The Werewolf knows that in life all is but an interaction between two roles, master and slave. There are few who can bear the burden and responsibility of mastery. If one is inclined to mastery then one will quickly find themselves becoming a leader after being reborn a werewolf. The more one becomes in tune with their predatory animal instincts the more powerful and authoritative they shall become. This is the power of true Lycanthropic Transformation: The union of instinct and intellect. However if one is inclined to slavery they will find they still have a level of superiority to their none Werewolf counterparts, in that they will have the needed tools to choose the most compatible master. They will have the needed union of instinct and intellect to understand why if one is inclined to be a slave, they should seek to be one to a master that fulfills that which they need, to be a satisfied slave. Some may have issues admitting to themselves they are slaves. However self honesty is the first step to fixing problems within ones life. Better to admit what nature designed you to be, then to live a lie and go against what you were born to be. Going against what you truly are is the path to misery. One might feel they are admitting they are weak if they admit they are a slave in the social hierarchy, however being strong enough to admit one is not strong enough to be a master, and functions best as a slave, is a most admirable and noble quality. One which even the most dominate Werewolf should admire.

WEREWOLF SPIRITUALITY

Unlike many religions the Werewolf is not required to either believe or disbelieve in spirituality. Instead the Werewolf is given a very important lesson: Think for yourself! Decide for yourself if spirituality is real for you or not. Each Werewolf has the freedom to make these decisions for themselves and is taught that so are their fellow Werewolves. Therefore a Spiritual Werewolf and an Atheistic Werewolf will have no problem practicing the very same religion. In fact if one were eccentric enough, one might take both view points depending on what ever they needed to fit their current goals. We believe in growing as people not staying in the same spot our whole life. This extends to all areas of our lives including spirituality and or non spirituality.

Many of the Rites practiced by The Werewolf Cathedral can be practiced by both the spiritual and non spiritual. For instance the practice of Werewolf Form assumption can be seen as a spiritual experience of a psychological experience. From a spiritual view point when one assumes their Werewolf Form they are becoming possessed by a higher self or a astral being which is their own self on a higher plane. From a non spiritual psychological perspective it is a well thought out way of using one of mans weaknesses to his advantage. It is easier at times for humans to externalize things then to accept them about themselves. Therefor rather then try to change oneself into a more charismatic person, the werewolf simply externalizes that charismatic aspect that lay dormant within. Upon externalizing this “other more charismatic person” the werewolf then assumes the form of that person and pretends to become possessed by it. Thus using ones own psychological weakness as a very real strength. Thus the werewolf which views Werewolf Form assumption as purely psychological has a unique trick they can play on themselves to allow themselves to become the ultimate actor in the play of the world, and become the type of character in this story they wish they were. When keeping in mind the practice of Perfect union by embracing totally duality, it might even be possible for some werewolves to view it as both a spiritual and psychological experience.

Even the rites and rituals practiced within The Werewolf Cathedral can be beneficial when viewed from a non spiritual perspective. Going into a ritual chamber with imagery designed to remind oneself of their own personal power as a Werewolf, with or without those of like mind, can be quite a reinforcement of that very inner power. It can also establish a very powerful bond between members if this is done in a group setting. It can also quickly eliminate the need for the mystical experience that so many have. even if one does not believe in the mystical. It can allow one to express the love of being a Werewolf and alignment to the religion and philosophy.

WEREWOLF MORALITY

Considering the Werewolf knows there is no such thing as good and evil and embraces perfect union thru total duality the Werewolf has a unique perspective on morality. In truth nothing you do is ever “good” or “bad.” The reality is everything you do is both “good” and “bad.” it simple depends on the vantage point of the person viewing these actions. Consider a thief that steals food which is then caught and imprisoned. Society yells what a great deed this was to take the thief off the streets. However consider the possibility that this thief was in fact stealing food for his infant child and because of this great deed, of removing him off the streets, his infant child starved to death. Considering this vantage point, this great deed now appears to be quite a travesty. Even in a less extreme case everything everyone does has a positive and negative consequence. Just because the person committing the action doesn't see the opposite consequence doesn't mean that others do not see it. When this is considered, the morality of so called established society appears to matter very little if at all.

Instead what becomes moral is what is best for the individual werewolf. One is less worried about whether society would consider what they do as “right” or “wrong” when they realize everything they do is both “right” and “wrong.” When the Werewolf realizes this they are free to practice Lycanthropic Transformation to it's fullest. They no longer allow false values to stand in the way of doing what they want to gratify themselves. But use the union of the instinct and intellect to discover the best ways to go about doing whatever it is they need to be gratified in all aspects of life.

WEREWOLF CONFORMITY

The Werewolf has no concern for faddish activities or pop fashion, that includes herd conformity under the guise of none conformity... these childish antics prove detrimental to the Werewolf mind. Popular music fashion, literature and other mediums of entertainment are nothing more than forced media. It is repeated by corporations over and over in the hopes that one will eventually get the material stuck in ones head and soon begin to like it. Those of the Werewolf mind know the value of true aesthetic beauty when they see and hear it. We are not about to become the slaves of consumer based advertising which more often than not is full of empty promises and utter nonsense. To follow a trend is the antithesis of the Werewolves individualistic and creative nature. However a Werewolf is not foolish enough to deny himself indulging in pop culture if one legitimately enjoys it. The Werewolf which enjoys these things makes it a point to know he likes these things because he chooses to. Not because commercial advertising told him to.

WEREWOLF THREEFOLD LAW

No good deed goes unpunished it has been said. The Werewolf knows this to be fact as he has lived among men and tasted their venom. Lending a helping hand is not helping. It is to weaken yourself by opening the doorway to someone that is obviously weaker than you, and it weakens the “helped” by making them dependent on you for their own survival. Be ye forewarned that those seeking your aid shall return the favor in the most vampiric sense, by sucking you dry. This is not to say one does not help others of his pact. But it is a mutual give and take of even proportions. It is not one being Dependent on the other. But that of one complementing the other. It is abhorrent and unnaturally wrong to love those that spit upon and hate you. And to do so is to follow the lie of the right hand path and other masochistic philosophies. The satanic dictum of “do unto others as they do unto you” should be adopted by every true Werewolf. If someone wrongs you and it is unjustified then you have an instinctual obligation to return this regress. Remember there is a reason people are referred to as pushovers. This being said, allowing someone to depend on you in the master slave context when it is fully understood between both parties that it is in fact a master slave relationship is an even exchange. The need of the master to have a slave, compliments the slaves need for a master. As you can see the Werewolf religion and philosophy is not as clear cut as others because it requires one to think deeply about matters most will not even allow themselves to examine.

The Werewolf religion is a left hand path philosophy. We do not deny our carnal animal side. Not only do we accept it and enjoy it, we revel in it. We indulge in all life has to offer to the fullest extent of our ability. This includes sexual and non sexual carnality. The Werewolf knows the reason all right hand path religions have failed is they sought to starve humanity of indulging in the very thing nature designed it to do. Not only did this fail, but it caused a great harm to humanity in that many of the basic instincts of man were starved so much, men created plagues in the “human” kingdom which have never plagued the “animal” kingdom. It has also been counter productive in that: it starved humanity of its basic animal instincts so much that many in the human “kingdom” were no longer able to control their impulses and committed very horrible acts against themselves and others. The Werewolf never has to worry about losing control to such impulses because the Werewolf freely indulges in carnal activity without guilt so that it never gets to the “point of no return.” If only the right hand path would have simply admitted that man is what it is, for better or worse. allowing people to act freely as themselves, they might have seen the better side of man, which they claimed to be fostering. In fact their ideology had the exact opposite effect. This is why the Werewolf would never deny itself that which is pleasing and pleasurable to itself.

We indulge in that which fulfills us. Even if no one other than The individual Werewolves involved in it understand it. As long as the activity is not Illegal the Werewolf feels free to indulge to his hearts delight. The only exception is that the Werewolf should never allow oneself to become a slave to the indulging activities they choose to engage in. Because this would make the Werewolf weak and put the Werewolf in a jeopardizing position which could end his delight in carnality if left unchecked.

We also feel free to indulge in spiritual practices which might appear to be unethical to the non Werewolf. Acts such as blaspheme, mocking that which was once seen as holy etc... are not frowned on, or smiled on by The Werewolf Cathedral. But if a Werewolf finds their heart filled with joy by blaspheming a belief, religion, philosophy, or establishment that once hindered them, they are encouraged to do so. However if one does not find any joy in such an activity, they should find something else to indulge in.

BAD GUY SYNDROME

Humanity tends to engage in a very embarrassing human social habit Werewolves Call the “bad guy syndrome.” This syndrome is like a badge worn by “evil wicked dark sinister ” people. It is donned by the worst kind of attention seekers out there, those who use the devil or something that appears to be dark and dangerous but, are clueless as to anything about such matters. These people are guilty of dabbling with things they are too intellectually inhibited to even begin to comprehend. Luckily the forces of nature IE human socialization often sees to it that these individuals don't go far. They are guilty of being uneducated on subjects that they claim they are masters of. Instead of trying to be something that doesn't even exist, aka “evil,” The Werewolf is a constructive Individual. The reason is the Werewolf feels no need to wear the bad guy syndrome badge.

WEREWOLF RESPECT

The Werewolf follows the dictum “those that demand respect the most deserve it the least.” Truly respectable people are automatically respected, they do not demand it or ask for it. there is no need, their very actions command it. The ideal that one can verbally demand respect is only present in those that are truly incapable of being respected in any way, shape, or form. In the same since those that are respectable and conduct themselves in such a manner should be respected. Those that are quite simply disrespectful either to you or themselves should be given zero tolerance. Remove them from your circle as quickly as possible or you will regret it later. If you think you deserve respect but are given none ask yourself a few key questions: Do I respect myself? do I acknowledge that others are worthy of my respect? What have I done that makes me worthy of respect not in word but deed? Am I truly conducting myself in a respectable manner that others can visibly see and acknowledge? Remember when you are out in the open you are a Werewolf and represent a living link to the philosophy and spirit of the Wolf, DO NOT DISRESPECT IT!

WEREWOLF REBELLION

Far to many people wish to become something they cannot. One vehicle they seem to use is rebellion. The world is full of rebellious people having not one clue as to that which they rebel against. This type of activity is frowned upon by the Werewolf. Rebellion is fine, so long as there is true reason to be rebellious. Weak minded individuals seeking attention by pretending to be evil, rebellious, rogues need not apply to join our ranks. Even if they did, it is more than conceivable that they would not enjoy the company of the truly sophisticated animals that we are. And even more likely that they could not compose a sentence worthy of our response. So beware those seeking to fulfill some ignorant need to invert the right hand path ideal of good and righteousness in order to appeal to some dark power. YOU HAVE BEEN WARNED

WEREWOLF MAGIC/K

Magic is the ability to psychologically influence yourself and or others to perform your will. Magic is simply manipulating someones mind using any means conceivable. Magic is not a supernatural power it is simply trickery. It is using any means necessary to manipulate the situation and or person into doing your will. The ability to project one thought to another human being across the world is now possible thru technologies such as the Internet, television and radio. These are good examples of magic.

Magick on the other hand is a supernatural power. The Werewolf is free to practice both and even intertwine them if he is so inclined, which is known as Werewolf Magic/k. As far as classical models of magick Such as Hermetics are concerned. We are achieving the great work in the truest sense. In that we are becoming “more than human” by experiencing the very ultimate range of the human potential. . . The Werewolf also feels that, the days when one had to openly proclaim a right hand path view point, but then go into the lodge and practice the diabolical left hand path systems are dead. And the Werewolf conducts himself as such. There is no need to go around trying to convince everyone you are a great christian if in fact you are not.

However if a Werewolf were in a situation were using magic to appear to be such were more beneficial in the werewolf's over all life they would not be discouraged. However they would be expected to at least admit to those trustworthy around them of a like mind that is in fact all they are doing, performing magic.

As stated above using magic and magick together is the art and science known as Werewolf Magic/k. It is using the combined forces of trickery and real supernatural power together to cause change in conformity with the will of the Werewolf.

WEREWOLF LIFESTYLE

The Werewolf knows and accepts that there is one person who is most qualified to make a decision on any aspect of their life, themselves. No one is more qualified to tell you what is best for you, than you. After all who knows you better than yourself? Who has walked in your shoes more than you? No one! When one considers this, crucial life decisions become easier to make. since the Werewolf knows not to allow interference from someone less qualified to make the decision. Also, when the Werewolf has begun to achieve Lycanthropic Transformation, they know to follow their instinct and not to let the intellect override their survival instincts. Imagine the problems many women could have avoided if they knew this in the case of deciding whether or not to have an abortion. Who better to decide whether or not to have one then the women herself? If she had been taught not to allow intellect to override what she knew instinctively was correct for her, many bad situations may not have occurred in many peoples lives. We are not condoning or condemning abortion. Our stance is, that is up to each Werewolf to decide for themselves. Again no one is more qualified to make decisions about your life then you!

Why do so many seek to try to control others lives when they do not even have control of their own? The Werewolf truthfully does not care what the answer is to this question. The Werewolf only cares that those which may seek to do this to him quickly realize they are in no way ever going to dictate to the Werewolf how he is to live his life.

ABSOLUTE MASTERY

Many spiritual teachers have given students various systems for attaining mastery. Only to find out upon further inspection the master himself did not even use this system himself to attain such a level of power. Why then should the student? Should not the student actually be given the supreme secret to attaining mastery? Much like the Buddha, The Werewolf Cathedral says: all mastery comes from within. Why then did the Buddha not actually teach his students to practice this in his esoteric exercises... The Buddha knew how to meditate to achieve what he defined as enlightenment instinctively. Yet decided that others did not possess this skill and, needed to follow his dogmatic system. Which he developed after doing what came natural to him, to achieve the same thing he did naturally.

The Werewolf Cathedral philosophy is not a system given to the student to attain something they already know how to within themselves. It is a set of principles and ideas that were developed by people that live them. It is a road map if you will for others that wish to live the same way, created by those that have walked in the wolf's shoes, so to speak, long enough to have the proper experience to make the trip much easier. It is not a totalitarian view, in that the student is allowed to explore any system they wish or none at all.

However we openly teach that the path to true self mastery is already contained within yourself. It is the art of Gnosis or knowing. Have you ever just known something about someone that you had no logical way of knowing, only to find out later you were correct?

This is Gnosis. this same phenomena is contained within you about your own self on how to achieve mastery. If you are to attain enlightenment the first step is to realize you don't need someone else to tell you how. This act would already set you up for defeat. In that you have given your power and will over to another. How can you become a master if you just made yourself a slave to another? The successful achievement of any enlightenment lays on doing the very first step right. Which is to say to oneself I do not need anyone to show me how to achieve this state, because the method that I personally need is already contained within me. Know this, believe this, practice this, live this.

Also please note the method you or anyone else used to achieve this may not be the same as anyone else's. We must also stress that it is not hypocritical to create philosophies and ideals based on what you learn in your own experience. However you cannot really expect people that are not seeking the same things you are to be interested. For instance if one became a master of themselves then used this to indulge in sadism pursuits, and created a whole philosophical approach to sadistic indulgences, would that really benefit the masochist? Only to the extent that it would allow them to learn to better submit to the sadist. Therefore learning about the ideas of a master that is a masochist might be more beneficial to those of that inclination. This is why Werewolves tend to function in close knit packs or Wolf pack covens. we are like minded in that we have the same foundational beliefs. Yet we know that the true path to mastery is already contained within ourselves. We have very unique points and ideas which branch away from the core philosophy. We also acknowledge that these ideas may be totally useless to others unless they are quite similar to ourselves. Knowing this, and having been told this by so many occult masters of the past, why then do most students fall right into the trap of giving away their own Gnostic power, in exchange for an older outdated model of the occult, which was created by someone from a culture and society they could never even remotely identify with? This is because of lack of self confidence. Why not actually listen and follow the advise of the past masters? Attain mastery by following the one person that is best qualified to make any decision about what is best for you in any situation? The one person that knows you better than anyone else... YOU! The path to Enlightenment, Mastery and so forth is already contained within you... A Werewolf would never give away their power to another because it is weakness. This being said it is not weakness to learn from another that has walked a similar lifestyle or had similar goals and been able to achieve their aims... However when you feel what the teacher says to you is incorrect for you, there is nothing wrong with knowing this is true for you. then doing what you know is correct for you. This is not to say the teacher is wrong. but that the method he used for the similar goal is not quite tweaked enough to fit what you as the student need. Which makes sense, because the teacher tweaked it for himself first, that is why he is the teacher. However the good student will hear these words and also do as the teacher did. Tweak the system to his needs. There is absolutely nothing wrong with doing this. The problem that could arise is if the student tried to tell his teacher the teacher was wrong. And the student had a better way and everyone under the teacher should now do what the other student is doing. The wise teacher would simply say you are correct, in that this new way of using this system is correct for you at your present stage of development. however that does not mean it is correct for everyone else. He would then tell the student he is teaching a generalized method to students that wish to learn to do similar things to what he does. The student is to build his own unique version of the teachers system if that general system is not appropriate for himself. And to understand, his unique version may not be helpful to the other students without the same mindset.

Times have changed whether you believe in spirituality or not this should be obvious. Rather than fight against an unstoppable force. Why not use the change occurring in our times to our advantage? If one is a Werewolf then one should clearly be able to see that the systems of aeons past are not appropriate for this current aeon or changing time. Yet millions of occultist cling to these outmoded systems of esoterics. WHY! BECAUSE it's easier than making something appropriate for our time... After all being original takes energy. Many have said, as stated above, to truly be a master magician one must create their own system. Upon hearing this, the student quickly enrolls in the first qabalah western mystery school. Hoping to learn everything they can about a system from past aeons, from thousands of years ago, from a culture they could have no hopes of even remotely identifying with. The Werewolf Cathedral laughs at such trite silliness. Our response to outdated outmoded system of occultism from aeons of dead, fallen, gods such as: the fallen “yhw” of the qabalah is to HELL WITH qabalah. Is this hostile and blasphemous? Of course ! And with good reason, to liberate ourselves of a trap or prison such as a dead system, we mock that system in defiance. Qabalah is nothing more then a spiritual road map. However how good can a spiritual road map created several aeons ago, by a specific people, for a specific people, of a specific spiritual system, designed to teach you about a specific god, be to people that don't fit that criteria? The answer should be obvious it isn't. In fact it is counter productive to spiritual advancement in an aeon were the very godhead of that system is considered defeated, fallen, and dead. Why not take the advice above and create your own qabalah or road map. And not a road map to someone else's god or spiritual belief system. But to your own god and spiritual belief system? Why not even be so creative as to give it your own name? doesn't Wolfpactabalah have a nice ring to it? In case you can't tell that was a joke. However it was used to demonstrate a point. Unless you are a Israelite, from the era of the biblical Israelites, adhering to that spiritual system, and following that god, that particular system isn't going to be of much use to you. Unless it is highly adapted to suit your needs. In which case it isn't the same system. Why do so many seek to learn about everything except that which is most closely related to themselves?

why seek to become an authority on some something that really is not of yourself? If you are lets say a Satanist. would it really make sense to get a degree in christian theology? Why not learn of the history of Diabolical religious practices? If you are a christian does it really help you to read this and try to learn what we are teaching, if you believe occultism is evil and jesus condemns it? The point is learn to be yourself. Learn what your own personal inclination are. The type of person nature designed you to be, not what society tried to engineer you to be, and live it to the absolute fullest. For better or for worse you are what you are. Therefore why learn about something that is the exact opposite of everything you are, for any other reason then book knowledge, and or the possibility to adapt it to your own views. It is not like a Muslim can really apply the teachings black magick and still be a Muslim. Therefore one in this type of situation must either say I am learning about this information purely for knowledge sake, or because I am really more inclined to black magick then Islam. In the later case we would advise you to find new friends quick. It must also be noted even with all this said, if one truly has a desire to learn about older occult systems or systems that do not resonate with them, they are fully entitled to do so. And they should not be looked down upon by other werewolves for such endeavors. Remember no one is more qualified to make a decision about your life then you. And if you feel the best decision is for you to study older occult systems, then by our own philosophy we acknowledge that is what is best for you.

WOLVEN DICTUM

The Werewolf applies a very important dictum to their interpersonal relations: Know thyself, know others, master all. But what is the meaning of this dictum. The first part states: know thyself. This means to know everything about yourself, even the things you do not want to admit about yourself. Remember self honesty is the first step to fixing problems in ones life, as well as mastering ones life. Know everything about yourself and be able to at least admit it to yourself. This does not mean you have to tell the whole world your secrets. The second part of the Wolven Dictum states: Know others. This means to study others, learn the habits of those around you, learn to be aware of what is going on around you. If you know someone says one thing but always does another, do not deceive yourself that they have somehow changed. Unless the person can demonstrate they have somehow changed, it would be wise of the Werewolf to expect no change. The third part of the Wolven Dictum states: Master all. This means that in all situations be in charge. Know that even if the other people around you think they are manipulating you, that you have known yourself and others well enough to manipulate them, without them even knowing it. It also delves into the use of Werewolf Magic/k. In that you can master all by knowing yourself and others thru Werewolf Magic/k. Learn to observe people's body language, learn the tells, as poker players call them, of those you interact with. Then even if the person verbally lies to you, their body will tell you the truth. Then you can use this to your advantage and apply Magic, Magick or the art and science known as Werewolf Magic/k to exert your will upon others and be a master of all!

WEREWOLF DESTINY

No one is responsible for your destiny but you. The Werewolf knows that Might is Right. And the power of Might is what makes something right. This is why the Werewolf seeks to unleash the beast within and achieve his destiny. This is why Lycanthropic Transformation is so important to the werewolf. Because in putting his animal instinct and intellect in union he is now able to fully live in accordance with the way of nature. Which can be very cruel at times. yet might is right is the way of nature. We become in tune with our predatory instincts thru Lycanthropic Transformation. This allows us to get in tune with that inner might so that we can then make our wills right. It also allows us to fully accept that to the victor goes the glory and the gold. Lycanthropic Transformation not only does this but it allows us to be in a position of the victor not the vanquished.

Remember the Werewolf achieves perfect union by embracing total duality. Therefor the Werewolf has no problem being brutal when the need presents itself. Yet at the same time the Werewolf can be very compassionate. It all depends on what the situation calls for in the eyes of the individual Werewolf. The Werewolf because of his knowledge of Lycanthropic Transformation is then able to trust his gut instinct and use his unified intellect to formulate the best possible way to achieve what his instinct dictates is the best course of action.

WHY/BECAUSE TRAP

A very wise magician of the past named Aleister Crowley, wrote something under the instruction of what he termed his holy guardian angel. He stated in a book referred to as The Book of The Law “ 30. If Will stops and cries Why, invoking Because, then Will stops & does nought.” The Werewolf uses this to principle to his fullest advantage. If one thinks about it, a mental process that stifles man can be spotted upon applying this teachings. If your instincts dictate to you to do something, and your intellect responds, “Why?” The the entire ability to act on your instinct is stopped because then you have to have a reason why you should do something. The book of the law also states: “32. Also reason is a lie; for there is a factor infinite & unknown; & all their words are skew-wise. “ Consider this: The whole process of asking why you or anyone else would do something is to make it appear, falsely so, that one needs a reason to do something. In fact the Werewolf adopts the idea that reason is a lie. And acts in such a way. Therefore the Werewolf does not need a reason to do what he wills to do.

This is why Lycanthropic Transformation is the perfect answer to this psychological, problematic block known as the Why/Because Trap. Consider this: You unify your instinct and intelligence therefore, when you have the instinctual urge to do something you do not ask why. because you know it will in fact invoke because, thus causing you to abandon the urge and seek a reason to act on your instinct. Instead you simply acknowledge your instinct has given you the natural urge to act in a certain way and now your unified intellect can search for the best way to achieve what your instinct dictates. Therefore the Intellect of the Werewolf does not stifle the instincts with questions but is at one with the animal instincts of the Werewolf.

SPIRITUAL WEREWOLF

It is understandable that many will feel the need to practice something akin to religious rituals and ceremonies. The Werewolf Cathedral does not discourage or encourage such practices. Instead the werewolf is presented with a set of religious practices that he may engage in if he so chooses.

These rites and rituals are designed to help one get in touch with his bestial nature, and to help satisfy the need for dogma and ritual that is inherent within our nature. All ritual should be done in a ritual chamber with the Symbol of a Wolf above the altar. The alter is at the west of the ritual chamber. The tools needed are: a black robe, a dagger, a chalice, an upside down pentagram, a wand, and a mirror (which should be below the symbol of the Wolf, so that one can see one-self in the mirror. Start by entering the ritual chamber, then take the dagger in hand, point it at the mirror and (in a commanding tone) recite the combined Invocation and Evocation...

THE INVOCATION OF THE WOLF

Behold! By fang and claw, by the right of might, I summon the wolf within out of the river of Acheron! Come forth by my instinct and intellect, I command thee! Behold! I am master and creator of my destiny! I am the Beast within man! I am the Black Wolf of the night! Arise and appear! O brothers of the pact! Behold! The howling scream of my command! Next trace a circle in the air around the ritual chamber going counter clockwise at each point say one of the following (in respective order): Blood! Claw! Howl! Fur! Next make a statement of intent and purpose. This is a verbalization of what you wish this ritual to accomplish. If you wish you may symbolically act out what you wish to happen. If you choose to do this step: do not hold back emotionally when doing so. If you are cursing an enemy let all of your hatred for them be released in the ritual. If you are doing it to arouse lust in the object of your attraction then do not hold back during your symbolic enactment of what you wish to be your desired result. And if you are doing a blessing feel not weakness in crying for the person you are performing the blessing for. Make sure to exhaust your pent up emotional resource during this point of the ritual. In some cases such as the Cursing of an enemy, or the seducing of a potential sex partner it might be wise to assume your Werewolf Form before you enact this part of the ritual. Remember this can be done as a psychodrama, or a deeply esoteric ritual. However do not expect a million dollars to fall from the sky because you asked for it.

Take the wand in ones hand, and assume your Werewolf Form by vibrating the name you have given your alter ego. Do this vibrating while visualizing it in front of you. Then, merge with it by inhaling its form inside your own body, Now partake of the chalice and touch the pentagram and recite the final bidding.

Final Bidding

Behold, The hounds of hell hath come forth. Grant those requests which I have petitioned. Go forth into the aether and make those inferior mortals subject unto my command, so that my desires may be made manifest into this plane. So it is done, So it Shall be, So mote it be! Hail Marchosias Lord of the seventh throne!

*note In the performing of curses there is one law: A curse must be thrown without remorse and without regret. If you have even the slightest bit of pity for the victim after throwing the curse, you will end up being the victim of your own curse. As far as curses are concerned: It is wise to forget the person ever existed after you have performed them. When seducing others be ready to indulge in all the pleasure you sought with those individuals. And when performing blessings be willing to accept the possible burdens of such altruism.

THE WEREWOLF BAPTISM

The werewolf enters the Cathedral and lays on the ground as if dead, knowing he is about to be reborn a new being.

The priest then circles the Werewolf clockwise three times holding an incense censer which burns frankincense, myrrh, and dragon's blood, then the priest stops faces the werewolf and recites the following rite.

Priest: "By the power of pure instinct in union with intellect we baptize thee (werewolf's name is spoken) we charge thee with the life blood of the werewolf, may you always remember that which runs thru thy veins is nature and none other. We charge thee with the force of the claw, may you always exert your force and will on all you encounter. We charge thee with the breath of the howl, may you always speak with wisdom and understanding. We charge thee with the warmth of the wolves fur, may you always remember the earth on which you live and that you are a part of it and must work within it, and in harmony with its ways."

Priest: "Doth thee accept?"

Werewolf: "Yes."

Priest: "The so be it! A new Werewolf you are. Arise and proclaim thy power."

Werewolf: "I proclaim that all the power of the universe resides in my being, and dedicate myself wholly and completely to developing and using this power for the gain of both myself and my pack. So mote it be!

Priest "So mote it be!"

werewolf now stands firmly before the priest.

The priest then draws an invoking earth pentagram in front of the initiates head.

Priest “Behold a new creature is born into life out of death. Behold the newborn wolf of the full moon. Behold our Brother/Sister Werewolf.”

Priest “So it is done, so it shall be, so mote it be.”
Both the Priest and Werewolf then in a commanding voice intone the last words of The Werewolf Baptism: “Hail Marchosias!”

PRAYER TO MARCHOSIAS

O great mighty marquis Marchosias
Lord of the order to which I have pledge mine self
I call upon you my Lord
I ask that you might smile upon all that I do Bless those things which I exert my will upon and curse those that sneer upon me
Protect me at all times Father
I ask for you guidance In all that I do
So that I might be able to live as a true werewolf and be filled with the spirit of the Wolf
O great one who was Blessed with the form of a wolf and wings of a griffin
Bless all that I do and enslave any who would defy thy will with thy serpent tail Vomit forth thy breath of fire onto those that would seek our destruction
O great Lord of the Werewolves I praise thy name and spirit
And ask that thy spirit would empower mine at all times
I praise you my Lord and I hail thee
Hail to you Marchosias
Lord of the Seventh Throne

WEREWOLF MASS

Participants:

Priest

Priestess

Congregation

Frankincense, myrrh and dragons blood incense is burnt. Black and White candles are also lit. A chalice containing water and a plate of bread of cakes is also prepared.

The Priestess signifies the beginning of the Mass by saying “Hail Marchosias. Let all who enter do so with perfect love and perfect trust!”

The Priest makes the Sign of The Wolf with his left hand and says: “In the name of the mighty marquis Marchosias, Lord of the seventh throne. I call the Werewolf elders. Be with us and aid us in this sacred rite.”

Congregation: Our mighty Marchosias, and powerful Werewolf elders we come today in perfect love and perfect trust.

Priest: May Marchosias and the Werewolf elders protect us, guide us, and aid us in the fulfillment of our goals.

Congregation: O might Marchosias and Werewolf elders we pledge our loyalty to you and the practice of the Werewolf ways. Look favorably upon us and grant us that which we desire.

Priestess: May the Lord of our cathedral and are great elders smile upon us this day.

(The priestess and the priest exchange a kiss)

Priestess: Minister of the Lord of the seventh throne. I greet you Who teaches us to seek knowledge and wisdom.

facing west) In the name of Marchosias, we call the power of the blood

(facing south) In the name of Marchosias, we call the power of the claw

(facing east) In the name of Marchosias, we call the power of the howl

(facing north) In the name of Marchosias, we call the power of the fur

Congregation: O Marchosias and powerful Werewolf elders we ask that all which would do should please you. Grant us your favor.

The priest and priestess then drink from the chalice. After which all members of the congregation also drink of the water.

When all have partaken of the chalice. The priest and priestess both extend their left hands in the sign of the Wolf.

Now the Priest and Priestess eat a piece of bread or cake and the congregation follows in suit.

The congregation then bows before the Altar and say. In perfect love and perfect trust we pledge our devotion.

The Priest and Priestess ask the congregation to rise.

The congregation rises and extend their left hands in the Sign of the Wolf.

The priest and Priestess proclaim: So it is done, so it shall be, so mote it be!

The Priest and Priestess then shout: Hail Marchosias Lord of the seventh throne, praise be to our Elders!

Then congregation then shouts in return; Hail Marchosias Lord of the Seventh throne, praise be to our Elders!

The ritual ends

WEREWOLF MEDITATION

Meditation can be used for many things depending on the need of the Werewolf.

Werewolf relaxation meditation. Sit in a comfortable position, place your hands together, and close your eyes. now begin to take two deep breaths. Then begin to breath normally try not to let your mind get carried away with the thoughts of daily activity planning and so forth. Simply sit there and try to relax. If thoughts arise do not try to swat them away. However do not pay any attention to them either. In this way you do not give the breath of life to your thoughts and they quickly vanish. This whole meditation could easily be summed up as sit down, shut up, and stop. Try to do this as long as is comfortably possible.

Werewolf Release Meditation. Again sit in a comfortable position, placing your hands together as before and close your eyes. Take two deep breaths. Then being to breath normally. Instead of not thinking, in this exercise you are encouraged to think about something in particular. This thought is to be about something the Werewolf normal would not think about. Such as a sexual fantasy which they find disturbing yet secretly arousing. Or a aspect of thought they normally would not have felt comfortable with. Such as being in a boxing match or so forth. There should be no restraint in thinking these things or how far in thought you take it. The idea behind this is that by allowing yourself to indulge in these “evil” thoughts you get the underlying urge out of your system therefore you would never actually have to engage in them and also free yourself of the pent up frustration.

Werewolf Energy Meditation. Again sit in a comfortable position, placing your hands together as before and close your eyes. Take two deep breaths. Then begin to breath normally.

Now in vision a powerful energy encapsulating your whole body. In vision this energy field circling around you violently and powerfully. Imagine this energy field being made of pure energy even more powerful than electricity. Imagine with each moment the energy field speeds up, Feel its movement, sense its movement, feel it flow from within you and penetrate into that which is around you. Imagine as this speeding up occurs the power of the energy field grows stronger and stronger. The more you meditate and the energy field strengthens the more you feel its power flow thru you.

Werewolf Form Assumption Meditation. Again sit in a comfortable position, placing your hands together as before and close your eyes. Take two deep breaths. Then begin to breathe normally. Now in vision your Werewolf Form, vibrate the name of your Werewolf Form and merge with it. Now allow this werewolf form to take over your consciousness. This may feel a bit forced at first however once you give into the Werewolf Form enough the rest is pretty much instinct. No matter what odd thought comes to mind while doing this allow it thru. Do not attempt to silence the Werewolf Form, rather become the Werewolf Form. But allow it to act freely thru you. Once you feel you have done this enough simply in vision the Werewolf Form Coming out of you and then vanishing as a fog into the ether.

WEREWOLF CHANTS

Sit in a comfortable position, place your hands together, and close your eyes. now begin to take two deep breaths. Then begin to breath normally.

Submission does not exist in my being Defeat does not exist in my being
My will is superior to all others
Victory is my only option

Basically anything which would make the Werewolf feel empowered can be used as a mantra in this exercise. The idea is similar to affirmations however it is a much more powerful in that you are using a commanding tone and repetition in a mantra type chant so that your mind follows in kind.

The prayer to Marchosias may also be used as a type of Gregorian Werewolf chant or mantra.

THE WHY/BECAUSE BANISHING RITUAL

This ritual is performed to remind the Werewolves that they do not need a reason to act on their instinct. And of the dangers, of such ideals which claim otherwise. It is also used to banish such ideas from the minds and spirit of the Werewolves.

Priest: Why dost thou deny the right hand path?
Congregation: We do not need a reason!
Priest: Why dost thou not submit?
Congregation: We do not need a reason!
Priest: Why dost thou assert thyself over others?
Congregation: We do not need a reason!
Priest: Why dost thou not invoke because?
Congregation: Enough of Because! Be he damned for a dog!
Congregation: Now a curse upon Because and his kin!
Congregation: May Because be accursed for ever!
Congregation: If Will stops and cries Why, invoking
Because, then Will stops & does nought.
Congregation: If Power asks why, then is Power weakness.
Congregation: Also reason is a lie!
Congregation: Enough of Because!
Priest: What then, o brothers and sisters, is the fate of because?
Congregation: May Because be accursed for ever!
Congregation: Be he damned for a dog!

THE STRUCTURE OF THE WEREWOLF CATHEDRAL

When one becomes a member of The Werewolf Cathedral they start as a lifetime member. However that is not the only rank within The Werewolf Cathedral. The ranking system goes as follows.

Lifetime Member – Everyone Starts here, Entered Werewolf Apprentice
Acolyte – Fellow Apprentice Werewolf
Priest/Priestess – Master Werewolf

INNER ORDERS

Within The Werewolf Cathedral there are two dominating orders: The Priesthood of The Wolf, and The Order of Marchosias. The priesthood of the Wolf contains members that have earned the rank of Priest/priestess and are considered the Ministers of The Werewolf Cathedral.

The inner order is known as The Order of Marchosias. The workings of this order are entirely secret from the rest of The Werewolf Cathedral. Only those within it's select membership know the purpose or practices of this order.

MARCHOSIAS: LORD OF THE SEVENTH THRONE

MARCHOSIAS. - The Thirty-fifth Spirit is Marchosias. He is a Great and Mighty Marquis, appearing at first in the Form of a Wolf having Gryphon's Wings, and a Serpent's Tail, and Vomiting Fire out of his mouth. But after a time, at the command of the Exorcist he putteth on the Shape of a Man. And he is a strong fighter. He was of the Order of Dominations. He governeth 30 Legions of Spirits. He told his Chief, who was Solomon, that after 1,200 years he had hopes to return unto the Seventh Throne. The lesser key of Solomon Goetia.

Marchosias is the Lord of The Werewolf Cathedral. Not only does the inner order of The Werewolf Cathedral bear his name. But after every Rite performed by Members of The Werewolf Cathedral His name is hailed by shouting; "Hail Marchosias, Lord of the seventh throne." The reason for this is a secret known only to the inner order. However The fact that the great mighty marquis Marchosias is described as a wolf that can also appear as a man should be useful enough to those outside of the Order of Marchosias. Also when one considers that we are in fact a left hand path church and secret society practicing a unique philosophy and religion, It should come as no surprise the the Lord of The Werewolf Cathedral is a being described by many magicians of the past as a demon. We do not however consider Marchosias to be a demon. In The Werewolf Cathedral's view he is simple a powerful supernatural being who decided not to be "evil" or "good." Thus our idea of perfect union by embracing total duality is seen even in the Lord of The Werewolf Cathedral.

Whether the individual Werewolf believes in a literal marchosias or not is entirely up the the individual Werewolf. He can be viewed as both an archetype and a literal being. The Werewolf Cathedral accept both these views.

THE PURPOSE OF THE WEREWOLF CATHEDRAL

The Werewolf Cathedral was created for those with a social Darwinist mindset, and on the Left Hand Path, to practice our unique philosophy without the restriction and problems that other religions have encountered. This is why we do not require belief in spirituality or require disbelief in spirituality. All that is required for membership is that one accepts the philosophy laid out in The Manifesto of The Wolf and is of legal age in their respective countries. If one does this they are free to join The Werewolf Cathedral. However their involvement with The Werewolf Cathedral is entirely up to them. Much like everything in life you get out of it what you put into it. Also unlike classical occult orders, we do not require you to pay a monthly membership fee. Most of these orders were required to charge this fee to continue to send the student updated lessons. However with the advent of the internet this really is no longer necessary. The only fee you pay is your one time Lifetime Membership fee. If you wish to buy books on our teachings that is entirely optional and not required.

INTRODUCTION

With few exceptions all religions and philosophies have been based on hypocritical self-deceit and false altruism. The Werewolf philosophy is concerned with no such thing. This is a philosophy of might is right, the victory takes the glory, and decides how he shall be remembered. No one is responsible for your destiny but you. Unleash the beast within and decide your destiny. We are dedicated to the promotion of the highest aesthetics within the human mind and the preservation of the pack. This is a left-hand path philosophy. In other words, we do not believe in notions of good and evil. Trite philosophers created these false notions, to control the weak of mind.

The road to Lycanthropic Transformation lies within the carnal bestial nature within every living human being. We are not concerned with an afterlife as the “here and now” is where our destinies lay at present.

THE OATH OF THE WEREWOLF

Learn it, believe it, live it!

I am a beast and I worship instinct and intelligence.
I am predator not prey and shall conduct myself as such.
I shall believe nothing that is not within my reasoning.
I exalt the dark forces in nature and man, as they are vital to existence.
I shall always strive to preserve myself and my pack.
I shall have no other gods before mine own self.
I will not befriend that which is inferior.
I am a werewolf and shall be ruled by none.
I shall always seek to unify my intellect with my instinct.
I shall always respect the Occult and it's hidden forces and power.
I will not betray my kind no matter what benefit I may gain.
I shall know, I shall will, I shall dare, and I shall remain silent.
I shall have no pity for those, which I seduce, with my magick.

LYCANTHROPIC TRANSFORMATION

Every man and woman has been hardwired by evolution for survival. This is obvious to any true werewolf. Man is a predatory animal and by his instinct in union with his intellect he shall prevail and rise to his true destiny. We call this unification, “lycanthropic Transformation”. It is the ability and process of allowing the instinct to dominate the intellect, moral, and ethical principles do not become a stifling stumbling block that causes one to think before acting in a way that feels correct. This being said we do not condone, nor tolerate any illegal activity whatsoever. Engagement in such shall result in your expulsion from The Werewolf Cathedral.

The Werewolf Philosophy is one of Social Darwinism, of survival of the fittest. To the victor go the spoils of glory and the power. See to it that you are victorious in all your endeavors. For in doing so, you shall never be subjected to the will of inferiors. What makes something right is the fact that one is powerful enough to make it right. The reason that those who have fallen in great wars are thought of as being on the “wrong” side of things is merely because they lost. If Germany had won World War II we might very well all be goose-stepping and talking about the evils of the allies. We do not concern ourselves with what society or predefined belief systems tell us is right or wrong. Instead we, as Werewolves, seek to find our own “rights” and “wrongs” which are valid for us and us alone. Each Werewolf’s personal code of conduct is unique; as we are all free thinking individuals. If someone says to us this is wrong because so and so or such and such a group (or government) says it is, we do not take that blindly as a truth. Instead we determine what our own opinion is on that which we were told was “wrong” or “right.”

We learn to trust our instincts, something most of humanity has forgotten. We learn not to ask ourselves why we feel a certain way, and accept that nature made us with survival instincts which are never wrong in the way they make us feel. Instead we learn how to unify our intellects with our instincts so that we can act to the fullest, in response to our instinctual feelings, as best as possible. The first step to achieving Lycanthropic Transformation is in the acceptance that you are an animal. We do not deny the spiritual side of humanity, however we unlike many religions do not deny the carnal aspect of the human animal. Do you spend most of your day in the heavenly realms, or in a material world in a physical body? Anyone capable of logical thinking will realize we are in fact biological physical beings with pre coded instincts hardwired into our sinews and brains for survival purposes; just like so called lesser animals.

These so-called lesser animals which never deviated from their instinctual nature seem to be much less riddled with the problems the modern society and culture of the “superior” animal man has become plagued by. Could it be that because of mans so called “superior” intellect and extremely arrogant “ego” he has denied that very thing that would set him free? Werewolves know the answer is, “yes”. Man because of his so-called “superiority” has denied that he could ever be such a thing as an animal. And He instead lied to himself believing he is some kind of Casper the ghost inside a shell. This idea that man should deny his own instincts has done nothing but cause the de-evolution of man since the inception of its ludicrous ideology was conceived. We also do not lie to ourselves about Nature. Nature can be caring but at many times it can be very cruel. This is necessary for the proper balance of life. If the wolf stopped killing its prey for food, because it felt sorry or that it was ethically wrong, would that benefit the wolf or the wolf pack? The answer is obviously, “no.” Yet man in all his so called wisdom, has attempted to do these very things, not only to himself but to all of society. Thus starving people of their instinctual birthrights and predatory animal instincts. Life and Werewolves are Predatory; unless ones preys upon lesser beings, the “predator” becomes the prey. Only the strong survive. This is Nature’s perfection. Learn to become in tune with it to the best of your ability, or be subjected to it.

PSEUDO WEREWOLF

The Werewolf Cathedral considers anyone that believes in actual transformation of a man into a Lon Chaney Jr style wolf man, with a hairy face and fangs, to be a pseudo werewolf. Being a werewolf is a mentality and an ideology. Lycanthropic Transformation is about union of intellect with instinct. So that the two complement each other, rather than being at odds with one another. We are not concerned with role players and other such individuals, if that is what you are looking for, look elsewhere! This is an organization for the elite of the elite, truly self-reliant free thinkers.

SINS OF THE WOLF

We do not believe in sin. Sin is a man made ideal to keep lesser mortals inline. We believe in indulging in all of life's pleasures, both sexual and non-sexual. Man is a carnal being and to deny oneself fleshly pleasures is absurd. Indulge, as much you can in all that you can, but do not let it become a ruler over you. In other words one must indulge but not lose control of himself and his activities. Remember the Werewolf has but one life, so he must (and will) make the most of it in order to preserve his memory in the minds of those that live on. This is where aesthetic creation and endeavors come into play. We seek to preserve and further the highest ideas and aesthetics in man. This includes art, music, literature, philosophy, and social structure. Not all werewolves are necessarily creators of these things but they at least have an appreciation for them.

MISANTHROPY

Werewolves are by nature misanthropic. We have disdain for the masses of man as he seems to be dedicated to his own masochistic destruction. The majority of human habits are looked down upon i.e. eating potato chips while watching some asinine sports show and contemplating the old days when one wasn't fat and threw a pig skinned ball in the air like some intellectually challenged inferior neanderthal. We are Werewolves not sheep. We do not watch TV or advertising that is designed to brainwash and conform us. We are the innovators and creators of our own aesthetically pleasing personal realities. Werewolves function in what are known as packs or groups of like-minded individuals. For esoteric practices it is called a Wolf Pact Coven. That is unless no other like minded individuals can be contacted. Then one functions as a lone Wolf. Members of The Werewolf Cathedral may function in whichever capacity they feel most comfortable and functional in. Packs are mainly used for aesthetic development and creation purposes. For instance a pack of sculptures may come together to create a masterwork of their own creation. Or a pack of philosophers may engage in thought to create an innovative idea. Covens are used for the performance of the esoteric religious rites in group settings.

GOOD AND EVIL

We as Werewolves do not believe in made man notions of good and evil. These terms are opinionated labels men give to actions to describe how they feel about them. We do not concern ourselves with labels meant to control or limit our behavior. We solve this problem of good and evil very easily. We achieve perfect union by embracing total duality. Thus we are utterly wicked and purely holy at the same time. The only reason someone would scoff at this is because of his or her limited scope and lack of vision. All people do both "good" and "evil." So rather than fight our instincts and nature, we simply embrace the two, and accept what we are without guilt. We are destructive and creative, loving and hateful, good and evil. Much like Abrasax or Baphomet.

ENLIGHTENMENT

Too long have men of bright minds sought enlightenment; not even knowing what it is that they seek. Only knowing that it promises some type of understanding of life and the human condition. Open your eyes, o ye enlightened prudes! For the truth of life and understanding lies within living to the fullest and experiencing all life has to offer. Those promising enlightenment through spiritual exercises, involving abstinence, are either fully aware of their own fallacious ideologies, or are under the stupor of total denial, falling victim to those of the former disposition. The way enlightenment of any kind can be attained is not through belief in spiritual doctrine (which denies the carnal aspect of life), but in doubt of them and their gluttonous gurus. Those that believe in "good" and all its glory and hail its loving compassion, are often more cruel and dishonorable than the very Werewolves they accuse of such disgraceful behavior. Do not engage them in debate for they are incapable of logical reasoning. Their very instincts have been dulled unto the point of actually believing that when they die after a non joy-filled life they will be in a better place. Better, if you consider the destruction of your current consciousness and all carnally indulgent joys to be above living a joy-filled life to the fullest. The dark ages of the "white light right hand path" "gods" are all but dead. Christianity and all right hand path systems are in their last death throws of survival and because of this they have become desperate and will practically buy your soul just to say, "Behold, another one with whom ignorance abounds, another drone for the Nazarene, the Buddha, & the Muhammad!"

EMOTIONAL GRATIFICATION

Werewolves are encouraged to get in touch with all their emotions, learn their sensations, and become master over them. Hate is just as necessary as love, and to deny this is to deny part of the Werewolf experience and the human experience in general. It is to become detached from the instinctual programming which nature has placed into our sinews and brain.

THE ESOTERIC WEREWOLF

Those Werewolves that wish to engage in our spiritual practices are first given one very important lesson. Think for yourself. Do not deny yourself the study of any piece of knowledge, period. Just because a group, religion, culture, or society tells you that something is proper or improper does not make it so. Learn what is best for you from the one person who is qualified to make the best decision for you in every situation...YOURSELF!

These teachings are based off of an amalgam of teachings from The works of Aleister Crowley, Boyd Rice, The Hermetic Order of The Golden Dawn, Classical Hermetics, Occultism, the works of Dr. Anton Szandor LaVey, Ragnar Redbeard, and various Chaos Magick systems.

To become an esoteric Werewolf we have a system of visualization and energy manipulation we use. First visualize yourself as a Werewolf. Imagine the characteristics you would possess as the kind of Werewolf-Animal you would be, if you had the ability to be everything you wanted to be (but for whatever reason currently are not). Begin to imagine yourself transforming into this Werewolf. Take on its characteristics. Merge with this Werewolf. Act in the way this Werewolf would act in your social situations, without the constraints that prevented you from acting the way you wanted to all your life. Say for instance a young man is attracted to a woman, however he is extremely shy. He might imagine his Werewolf as a very charismatic animal that is not shy. He could then after learning to merge with his visualized Werewolf Form, assume the form of his Werewolf and appear to be quite the catch to the woman which is the object of his attraction. This is how we remove our false conditioning society gave us, and transcend to become what we truly wish to be, and are destined to be. Begin to create this Werewolf Form as detailed as possible. Know all its characteristics, its inclinations etc... Learn to merge with it by visualizing the Werewolf coming into your being and your own self and your personality transforming into that of your Werewolf. This Werewolf is really in truth nothing more than an astral being which is your highest aspiration for yourself, what you wish to be, and how you wish to be. In a more mystical set of practices one can learn to visualize oneself in the astral as this Werewolf. One can perform certain tasks, such as: attack an enemy, speak to a loved one far away, discover hidden secrets on various matters, call various situations into one's life. The real limit to the things one can do with this Werewolf Form in the astral, is only that of the creativity of the Werewolf working with their own Werewolf Form. Learn to incorporate any practices you feel a connection with into these visualization techniques. If one is into the golden dawn system of magick or satanic magic or even shamanistic systems learn to utilize them to the fullest with your Werewolf Form.

These rites and rituals are designed to help one get in touch with his bestial nature and to help satisfy the need for dogma and ritual that is inherent within our nature. All ritual should be done in a ritual chamber with the Symbol of a Wolf above the altar. The tools needed are: a black robe, a dagger, a chalice, an upside down pentagram, a wand, and a mirror (which should be below the symbol of the Wolf above the altar so that one can see one-self in the mirror).

Start by entering the ritual chamber, then take the dagger in hand, point it at the mirror and (in a commanding tone) recite this combined Invocation and Evocation.

THE INVOCATION OF THE WOLF

Behold! By fang and claw, by the right of might, I summon the wolf within out of the river of Acheron! Come forth by my instinct and intellect, I command thee! Behold! I am master and creator of my destiny! I am the Beast within man! I am the Black Wolf of the night! Arise and appear! O brothers of the pact! Behold! The howling scream of my command!

Next trace a circle in the air around the ritual chamber going counter clockwise at each point say one of the following (in respective order): Blood! Claw! Howl! Fur!

Next make a statement of intent and purpose. This is a verbalization of what you wish this ritual to accomplish. If you wish you may symbolically act out what you wish to happen. Using anything you find helpful. Remember this can be done as a psychodrama, or a deeply esoteric ritual. However do not expect a million dollars to fall from the sky because you asked for it. Take the wand in ones hand, and assume your Werewolf Form by vibrating the name you have given your alter ego. Do this vibrating while visualizing it in front of you. Then, merge with it by inhaling its form inside your own body, Now partake of the chalice and touch the pentagram and recite the final bidding.

Final Bidding

Behold, The hounds of hell hath come forth. Grant those requests which I have petitioned. Go forth into the aether and make those inferior mortals subject unto my command, so that my desires may be made manifest into this plane. So it is done, So it Shall be, So mote it be! Hail Marchosias!
